One-third of water shouldn't be there: Maplethorpe

On a normal day the Antioch sewer plant is processing one-third more water than necessary, according to Antioch Sewer and Water Supt. Tod Maplethorpe.

He said that on a normal day the village pumps about 550,000 gallons of water and treats 700,000 gallons of water at the sewer plant. The excess is coming from storm water through leaks and illegal hookups in the system.

MAPLETHORPE is currently reviewing 12 pages of computer printout sheets that pinpoint where storm water is leaking into the village's sanitary sewer system.

The preliminary report has been prepared by a consulting firm and Maplethorpe is now working on locating the leaks and source of excess water either on private or public property. The final report from the consultants will include estimated costs of the repair work to the public property.

Locations of these sources of excess water were spotted by the consulting firms when the sanitary sewer lines were inspected.

The report shows breaks in the sewer lines, where manholes need to be grouted to plug holes, where suspected downspouts hooked into the system are located and where yard drains and garage drains hooked into the system are located.

THE PUBLIC portion of the repair work — the sewer line repairs and manhole grouting — will be done by the village, Maplethorpe said, but this will not be done until next summer.

He explained that grant money will be used for the public portion repairs, but that this grant cannot be applied for until costs are determined.

Also, the grant cannot be applied for until more information is provided by the Northeastern Illinois Planning Commission (NIPC). Maplethorpe said an industrial population equivalent figure is needed from NIPC to determine the size of plant expansion, if needed, before the grant money can be applied for. He said he didn't know when NIPC would provide the necessary information, adding that no public repairs of the sewer system would be done until at least next summer.

Library will celebrate burning of the mortgage

The Antioch Library will celebrate the traditional burning of its mortgage along with a testimonial and retirement dinner for long time board member Louise Vos on Friday Oct. 5 at the Country House.

Mrs. Vos retired earlier this summer after moving to Harbor Ridge which lies outside of the library district. She had served on the board for 47 years, 35 of those years as its president.

The dual occasion will also include mortgage burning ceremonies which have board members in general and President Mel Knirsch in particular, beaming from ear to ear.

The mortgage, signed in 1969 to finance the new library, called for the library district to pay $13,333.33 each year until 1984. Understandably the board is excited about paying it off over four years before it comes due.

And during the period of time that they were paying off the mortgage, the money borrowed from the First National Bank of Antioch was working for them.

"We were able to take that money and make something on it before we paid the bills," Knirsch explained.

"We invested it and earned more money than we had to pay in interest."

That additional money was used to "steadily improve the library," according to Knirsch, who noted that it wouldn't have been possible with a rate higher than the five per cent at which the loan was made.

The total mortgage was for $200,000.

So all the way around, the evening of Oct. 5 will be an exciting one for members of the library board. Mrs. Vos will be honored by the board and the evening will also feature a brief history of the library, followed by the symbolic burning of the mortgage.

"I have a real feeling for this group. I'm really proud of the bunch, even though I'm one of them," Knirsch said.

Cancer Bike-A-Thon most successful ever

The Antioch version of the eighth annual Cancer Bike-A-Thon was the most successful yet, according to the event's chairman, Pres Reckers.

Illegal sewer hookups found

There are 75 to 80 suspected violators so far of having home downspouts connected to the Antioch sanitary sewer system, according to Building Inspector Richard Stroner.

Stroner was instructed by the village board to make the inspections and to date he has completed his inspection of about half the town. Under the village ordinance it is illegal to have downspouts connected to the sanitary sewer system.

The building inspector said he is not positive that the suspects are really violating the village ordinance and he is seeking permission to go onto the property to make further inspections.

Suspected violators will be sent a letter informing them they are in violation of the ordinance and a request will be made to correct the violation.

"We are not going to issue ordinance violation tickets right away," Stroner said. If the residents question the violation, Stroner will then make smoke tests and put dye in the water in an effort to prove the violation.

If the warning letter does not get the necessary correction, the matter will be turned over to the village attorney, Stroner said.

A total of 92 riders participated in the ride which began at 9 a.m. at the Antioch Fire Station. And those 92 riders produced $9,000 in pledges.

"It was a beautiful day weather-wise and we are, of course, happy. This is the most ever pledged," said Reckers.

Final totals marking the success of the Bike-A-Thon will not be known until after pledges are collected.

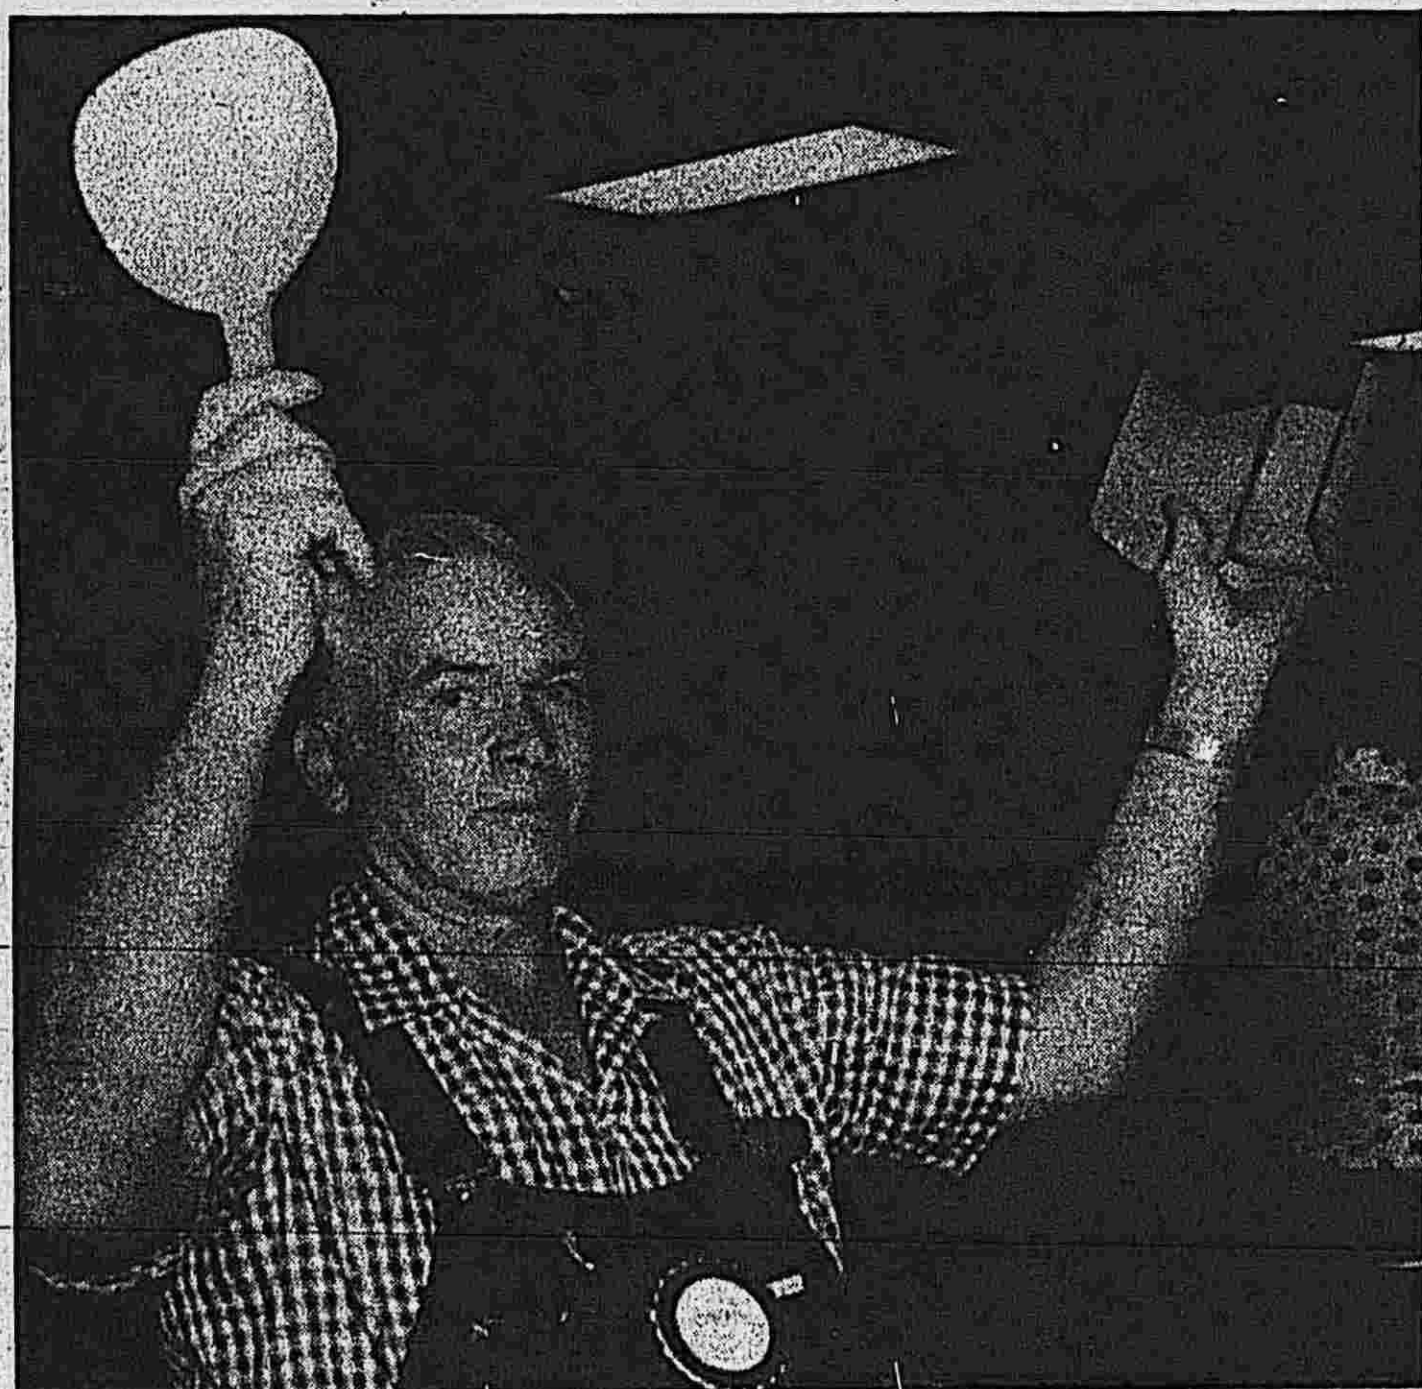

"Overall, it went very well," Reckers added.

Riders road a seven mile route that ran from the Antioch Fire Station west on Orchard St. to David St., south to Lake St., west to Tiffany Rd., north to North Ave., east to Deep Lake Rd., south to Little Silver Lake Rd. and west to the fire station.

First prize of a 10-speed bike is donated by the State Bank of Antioch, second place prize of a five-speed bike is donated by The Shoe Box, and third prize of a three-speed bike is donated by Four Squires.

Reckers said that community backing and personal involvement on the part of interested citizens, members of the fire department, police department and Antioch Jaycees have helped the event be increasingly successful each year it has been held.

Similar events were held in many communities county-wide.

Students, alumni prepare for Antioch homecoming

Students and alums of Antioch Community High School are impatiently preparing for the fun and excitement enjoyed annually during the school's homecoming festivities.

The theme for this year's homecoming at Antioch Community High School is "The Main Event." The homecoming activities are sponsored by the Student Council.

During the week of Oct. 8 to 12, the high school students will be working on floats for the parade and participating in the various Spirit Days. This year the Spirit Days will include a T-shirt and hat day, a 1950's day, and a class identity day.

ON CLASS identity day, freshmen may dress as people of the future, sophomores as Sequoits, juniors as athletes, and the seniors as senior citizens.

On Friday, Oct. 12, there will be a pep rally at the ACHS football stadium. The 1979 homecoming queen will be announced at the pep rally. The program will also include the introduction of the football players and comments by some of the football coaches.

Following the pep rally there will be a bon fire and then a sock hop.

Saturday, Oct. 13, the homecoming activities will start with a parade at 10 a.m. Each of the four classes will enter a float related to the theme "The Main Event." Other parade entries will include the queen and her court, bands, village officials, cheerleaders, and club entries.

The sophomore football game starts at noon. The varsity football game is at 2 p.m. The opponents for these homecoming games will be Grayslake. There will be a special half-time show.

The official homecoming dance will be in the south gym from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Saturday evening. The musical group "Soundwaves" will provide the music. The coronation will be at about 10 p.m.

All alumni and local residents are encouraged to attend and participate in the 1979 ACHS Homecoming. All are welcome to take part in "The Main Event."

Oktoberfest Set By St. Peter's

St. Peter's School Board, in a continuing effort to provide inexpensive entertainment for the entire family, is sponsoring their first Oktoberfest.

Festivities begin at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 6. The Wolff family band will provide music for dancing or listening.

In addition there will be a visit from Steve Ksioszk and a friend and a sing-along of old time favorites.

Brats, hot dogs and accompaniments plus refreshments will be served.

Antioch faces Stevenson in NWSC game Saturday

The Antioch High School varsity football team will be attempting to get back on the winning trail and into the Northwest Suburban Conference race when the Sequoits host Stevenson at 2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 6 in "a key conference" game.

The Sequoits lost a close one, 13-7 at Lake Zurich Saturday, Sept. 29.

Antioch is 2-2 overall and 1-1 in the NWSC.

Dennis Flaschner, who led the Sequoits with 107 yards rushing in nine carries, scored the lone Antioch touchdown on an 88 yard run in the opening quarter.

Dan Behne made the extra point kick to give the Sequoits a shortlived 7-0 lead.

The Bears came back before their homecoming crowd to tie the game with seven points later in the first quarter and six more in the third.

Head Coach Steve Wapon expressed displeasure in his team's overall offensive performance. "We lacked intensity. Because it was their homecoming, they were really up and we weren't up enough to overcome that little edge."

Lake Zurich also controlled the ball running 52 rushing plays compared to Antioch's 27, although the Sequoits outgained the Bears 170-163 on the ground.

Besides Flaschner's second 100 yard plus conference rushing game, Mitch Case had 41 yards in one dozen carries, Greg Stevens 17 in five and quarterback Jim Sertic, five in one.

Passing, Sertic was three off 11 for 19 yards. On the receiving end, Behne had one catch for eight yards, Flaschner one for seven and Case one for four.

Lightweights record third straight shutout

The Antioch Viking Lightweights marched into Waukegan and came away with another shutout, the third straight in conference play.

Tom McLellan threw a 25 yard pass to Joel Bissing for the first touchdown and the point after was good.

Dean Elrod had two consecutive runs, one for 17 yards and another for 15 yards and the second Viking touchdown. In the third quarter Gene Elrod had a 13 yard run to score the third touchdown of the game.

A few plays later Steve Lichter intercepted a Waukegan pass to put the Vikings in good field position once again. Tom McLellan threw a 30 yard pass to Brian Hairrell for the fourth touchdown.

In the fourth quarter Frank Halvey blocked a Waukegan punt and Steve Mueller recovered the ball and returned it to the 10 yard line, to set up the last touchdown of the game, scored by Joel Bissing.

Then Dean Elrod kicked the ball for the extra two points. Final score Antioch Vikings 33-0 over Waukegan.

Coaches couldn't say enough about Chuck Edmonds, Keith Hairrell, Brad Poulter and defensive backs Gus Mancuso and Bob McMahon and an entire team effort for this big win.

Even though last week's game between the Antioch Viking Lightweights and the Highland Park Giants was a non-conference meet, you would think they were playing for the championship.

Both teams coming into this game undefeated for the season. Both teams rambled up and down the field scoring several times.

Quarterback, Tom McLellan had a 17 yd. pass to Joel Bissing, and a few plays later Bissing scored the first touchdown.

Highland Park intercepted a McLellan pass and returned it for a touchdown. Score 6-6 at the end of the first quarter.

In the second quarter McLellan threw a pass to Gene Elrod for the second Viking touchdown, and Steve Lichter won for the extra point. The Giants came back to tie the score 13-13 by the half, and the score remained at the end of four quarters of regulation play.

In the overtime, on the fourth down, Joel Bissing managed to run in for the touchdown, giving the Vikings the lead. The Viking defense, Brad Poulter, Gus Mancuso, Mike Wegel, Todd Holt, and Ed Antkowiak were credited for preventing the Giants from scoring. Much praise was given Steve Lichter for his tremendous offense playing. Final Antioch Vikings 19-13.

Andy Anderson wins Open class A title

Two Antioch golfers squared off in a playoff for the class A Antioch Open Golf Championship Sunday afternoon, Sept. 30.

Andy Anderson carded rounds of 78 and 79 while Terry Perrimon came in with an 80 and 77 to give both amateur golfers 36 hole totals of 157 setting up the sudden death.

Anderson shot a par three for the fourth hole of sudden death while Perrimon missed his put on the tough Harbor Ridge Country Club course.

The event was co-sponsored by Lakeland Publishers, Inc. and Harbor Ridge.

Plans for next year's tournament are already beginning to take shape. "Play will include a women's division with various classes," Nick Teister, Harbor Ridge president announced.

The 36 hole tournament is tentatively planned for the first weekend after Labor Day.

Sequoit hockey improves

Antioch's field hockey team began the week of Sept. 24 with a 1-0 win over Woodstock.

A goal mid-way through the first half by Lori Nohlecek was the margin of victory. "It was not a very well played game by either team but Antioch prevailed," said Coach Chris Coolidge.

On Sept. 26, the Antioch girls played at Crystal Lake and were defeated 2-0.

Sophs shut out the Bears

Antioch's rough defense contained Lake Zurich's offense to just 40 yards total offense. Yielding 38 on the ground and two yards passing.

OFFICER OF THE WEEK

Third shift activity keeps dispatcher busy

The 11 p.m. to 7 a.m. shift and Dispatcher Susan Ploughman seem to be a perfect match.

Mrs. Ploughman likes to work when there is "busy air traffic," meaning a lot of activity on the radio, and the third shift often provides her that opportunity.

Most of the calls she dispatches refer to accidents, burglaries and fights. "The most interesting stuff happens on third shift," she said. "At 2 a.m. people don't call up to report a lost driver's license."

HAVING WORKED at the department for two and one-half years, she described herself as "the only rookie," because other dispatchers had previous experience.

A good dispatcher has to be able to handle each call individually. "For some people, it's their first contact with the police department, so the call has to be handled correctly," she said. Making decisions and thinking quickly are also necessary.

The third shift requires that the dispatcher "be on top of everything," she added.

While she likes her radio duties, which include answering calls for the Antioch, Lake Villa and Lindenhurst police and rescue squads, she loves to type interesting reports. "I get really wrapped up into it," the blond dispatcher said.

MRS. PLOUGHMAN studied dispatching and 911 Emergency Services at the Northwest Police Academy and at the state police school in Springfield.

Trained as a legal secretary at Moser Business College in Chicago, she has "always had an interest in law."

She enjoys the fast pace and unroutine nature of her work and working with the other police department employees, who pull together for one another, she said.

Scuba diving heads Mrs. Ploughman's list of favorite spare time activities. She has been a certified scuba diver since 1976 and has reached the ranks of Advanced Open Water Diver.

Mrs. Ploughman and her husband James, a scuba instructor, enjoy diving under ice in the winter as well as when the weather is warm.

WHEN SHE IS diving, holding a crayfish or shining a flashlight's beam attracts the fish, she noted.

"I grew up in Antioch and I love the water," said Mrs. Ploughman, who lived on Channel Lake as a child.

Biking, swimming, tobogganing and skiing are other hobbies.

Like their parents, the couples' two daughters, Shannon, 10, and Shelly, 7, are also "very active in sports," she said. The family resides in Antioch.

PM&L curtain closes this weekend

Antioch area theatre goes still have one more weekend to see the hilarious opening of PM&L's Season 19 "Black Comedy" directed by Rae Johansson. Closing dates are Oct. 5 and 6 at the PM&L

Theatre, 877 Main St., Antioch. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

"Black Comedy" by Peter Shaffer is zany and chaotic and includes many interesting characters, a love triangle, mistaken identities, people appearing at very inopportune times, and strange things that happen "when the lights go out." And all of this debuts on PM&L's newly constructed stage.

The talented cast includes Phil Jaeger from Zion; Pam Guardi from Waukegan; Pam Quint, Tom Hausman, and Larry Bersie from Antioch; Lillian Allen from Trevor, Wis.; Don Beveroth from Paddock Lake, Wis.; and Frank DiMarco from Zion.

Season tickets for the five shows of Season 19 can still be purchased at the door for $15. Box office prices for each show are $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for students. For reservations or further information call 395-3055.

STAGE REVIEW

Find 'Black Comedy' Amusing Bit Of Fluff

by GLORIA DAVIS

The PM&L Theater in Antioch presents for its fall offering, a bit of amusing fluff called Black Comedy.

A warning to anyone attending any of the next two weekends' performances, be in your seat before the play starts because without the opening dialogue you'll probably miss a large portion of it, while you're trying to figure out what's going on.

The opening night audience's laughter showed appreciation for the black-out bumbling antics of the cast.

Tom Hausman's "swishy" portrayal of the gay, antique collecting neighbor and Lillian Allen's enebriated spoutings proved to be acting standouts.

The rest of the adequate cast is ably led by Phil Jaeger and Pam Guardi although Miss Guardi's winsome posing, a carryover from her well done "Picnic" portrayal, seems a little out of place at times because of the premise of darkness.

The unusual plot base, when it's dark it's light and when the lights are on it's really a blackout, though a bit confusing at first, lends a different twist to the proceedings.

After the curtain call, there was a nice touch when the PM&L cast celebrated the first performance on their new stage by inviting the audience to help them christen it with a glass of champagne.

LAST SHOW— Pam Quint as Clea shows surprise over antics of Tom Hausman as Harold Gorringer during scene from "Black Comedy" on PM&L stage.

The Antioch Village Board set Oct. 29 as the hearing date. It will be held at 8 p.m. in the village hall.

Ordinance plans include assessments on Orchard St., Hillside Ave. and Lake St.

PARKING REQUIREMENTS in downtown Antioch will be evaluated to complete the village traffic safety survey under way by Barton-Aschman Assoc.

Owners of downtown stores and offices in the business district will be asked to provide figures describing the "gross leasable area" of their retail and office space, according to a letter to the village clerk from Barton-Aschman.

Village trustees authorized payments of $2,632 to Pi-Rod, Inc. and $373.92 to PR Communications for the installation of a tower and other equipment for the new fire station.

THE BOARD also hired Dick's Tree Service to trim trees downtown at a cost of $5 per tree.

In other action, trustees authorized the mayor to sign

INSURANCE INFORMATION

Our teenage son quite often rides with several of his friends in their cars, and they in turn often ride with him in our car. What is the best way we can be protected in case of an accident?

If an accident occurs, and it is decided by a court that the driver of the vehicle is at fault, then his insurance company will provide coverage for any injuries (providing the policy makes adequate provisions). Many people find it beneficial to carry Medical Payments coverage which can be added to an Automobile Liability Policy for a minimum fee. This will pay medical payments, up to designated limits, of passengers who may be injured, regardless of liability. As a passenger, your son would be covered by your standard Automobile Policy with Medical Payments Coverage. As in all cases coverage falls first with the automobile being used, and your primary protection would come from the policy covering the vehicle.

Buccaneers top Seahawks in OT

The third game of the season started with the undefeated Seahawks facing the defensively strong

Raiders shut out Eagles

The Raiders and Eagles played a defensive battle with a scoreless first half.

Finally Mike Fields of the Raiders scored a touchdown and Bob Carney carried for the extra point.

Much credit was given Robbie Ferrigan, Jerry Stingle, Kris Kauth, Bill Fleming, and Ron Edmonds of the Eagles for good tackling.

It takes a lot of practice and effort to become a Viking cheerleader. This week the coaches and terms of the Raiders and Eagles would like to remember these girls and say welcome to the team: Raiders — Susie Belli, Colleen Kelly, Stacey Mealer, Cynthia Morris, and Dana Ward. Eagles — Marlo Canella, Kirsten Christensen, Carolyn Cigrang, Scharon Cigrang, and Angie Papenfuss.

Buccaneers.

The first touchdown made by the Buccaneers gave them a 7-0 lead through the first half.

In the second half the defensive line came to life and held the Buccaneers to one touchdown. Gerry Stollenwerk intercepted a pass for an eight yard gain. Mike Goldine intercepted his first pass of the season. Ken Bergman scored the tying touchdown and Gerry Stollenwerk carried for the extra point.

In the fourth quarter the Buccaneers, on an intercepted pass, went ahead 13-7.

In the last minutes of the game Ken Bergman carried the ball for a touchdown to tie the game and send it into overtime.

In overtime Ken Bergman made a touchdown to lead the game 19-13.

The Buccaneers then had the ball on the 10 yd. line, the defensive line held and uncovered a fumble to win the game 19-13.

Game ends up scoreless

After four quarters of hard offensive and defensive play between the Warriors and Eagles the score was 0-0. In the overtime play from the 10 yard line neither team managed to penetrate the goal line.

The ball was then placed at the 50 yard line and each team had four turns at gaining the most total yards. The Warriors had first possession and made 46 yards on a run by Steve Behrendt. Then the Eagles had their turn, but four plays later came away with only 10 yards. The Warriors the victors in the sudden death game. Outstanding defensive play by Pat Mercer, John Shanks, Steve Behrendt, and Larry Rogers of the Warriors.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Judging from all the fun folks were having, the Antioch Rotary Club Pork Chop Barbecue and Auction last Saturday night was a huge success. Auctioneer Herman Behm was in rare form. He practically sold the seats right out from under the packed house.

Herman had plenty of helpers bringing out antiques. Homer White and Brad Ipsen Sr. had to catch their breath more than a few times.

There were some genuine antiques and a few "laughers" like the oil portrait of the posterior of one of our town's lady s. "You've got to buy this painting to find out who she is," Herman joked. Sale of an authentic chopping block from the old Antioch Packing plant proved to be the toughest selling job of the auction because Behm made his helpers hold it up while the bidding proceeded.

Charles Kemf of Fox Lake led a big delegation of Fox Lake Rotarians who attended. Budding politician, Fred Foreman, and his wife, were among out-of-towners who attended. We're told young Fred is running for state's attorney. Art Smejkal and his band provided those good tunes from the 50's that Annie Mae's age group (?) likes for dancing.

Did you see me out there kicking up my high button shoes a few times?

Annie Mae has heard that horseshoes were donated by Mrs. Helen Olsen to the Antioch Parks and Recreation Dept. It is community minded people such as she is that help make this town what it is.

Happy Belated Birthday to Flo Cihuk, Chuck Wittmer, Florence Druhl and Joe Misk. Vi Johantgen tells us they were all celebrated on Saturday, Sept. 29 at the Yellow Bird.

Helen and Paul (Dutch) Zeien proudly announce the birth of their 18th grandchild. Son Patrick and wife, Diana have a healthy baby boy (their second) who was born on Saturday, Sept. 29. New baby's name is Lucas Patrick. Patrick and Diana are former Antioch residents now residing in Oakland, Ill. near Champaign. Congratulations!

George Hahn will be confined to Victory Hospital for quite a spell yet while he waits for the skin grafting on his injured foot to take place. How he seriously injured his foot while waterskiing still is a mystery. George welcomes cards and calls.

If your home was built without an outside basement door, adding one now will open up a whole extra floor of valuable space. Space for recreation, hobbies, and storage. Bulky articles move directly in and out; no tracking through upstairs rooms.

As a replacement for a wooden door, the rugged all-steel Bilco Door will add beauty and value to your home—while paying for itself by saving repair costs.

Weatherproof energy.

In winter. For the past several winters, many parts of the country have experienced energy shortages. The oil and coal needed to make electricity couldn't be delivered. Rivers were frozen. Stockpiled coal was frozen solid. The machinery to move coal was frozen.

As fuel ran low, electricity had to be rationed. Plants and schools were closed. People were laid off. Shivering became the national pastime. But not in northern Illinois.

Commonwealth Edison electricity is made mostly from abundant coal and uranium. That helps to conserve the scarce fuels oil and natural gas.

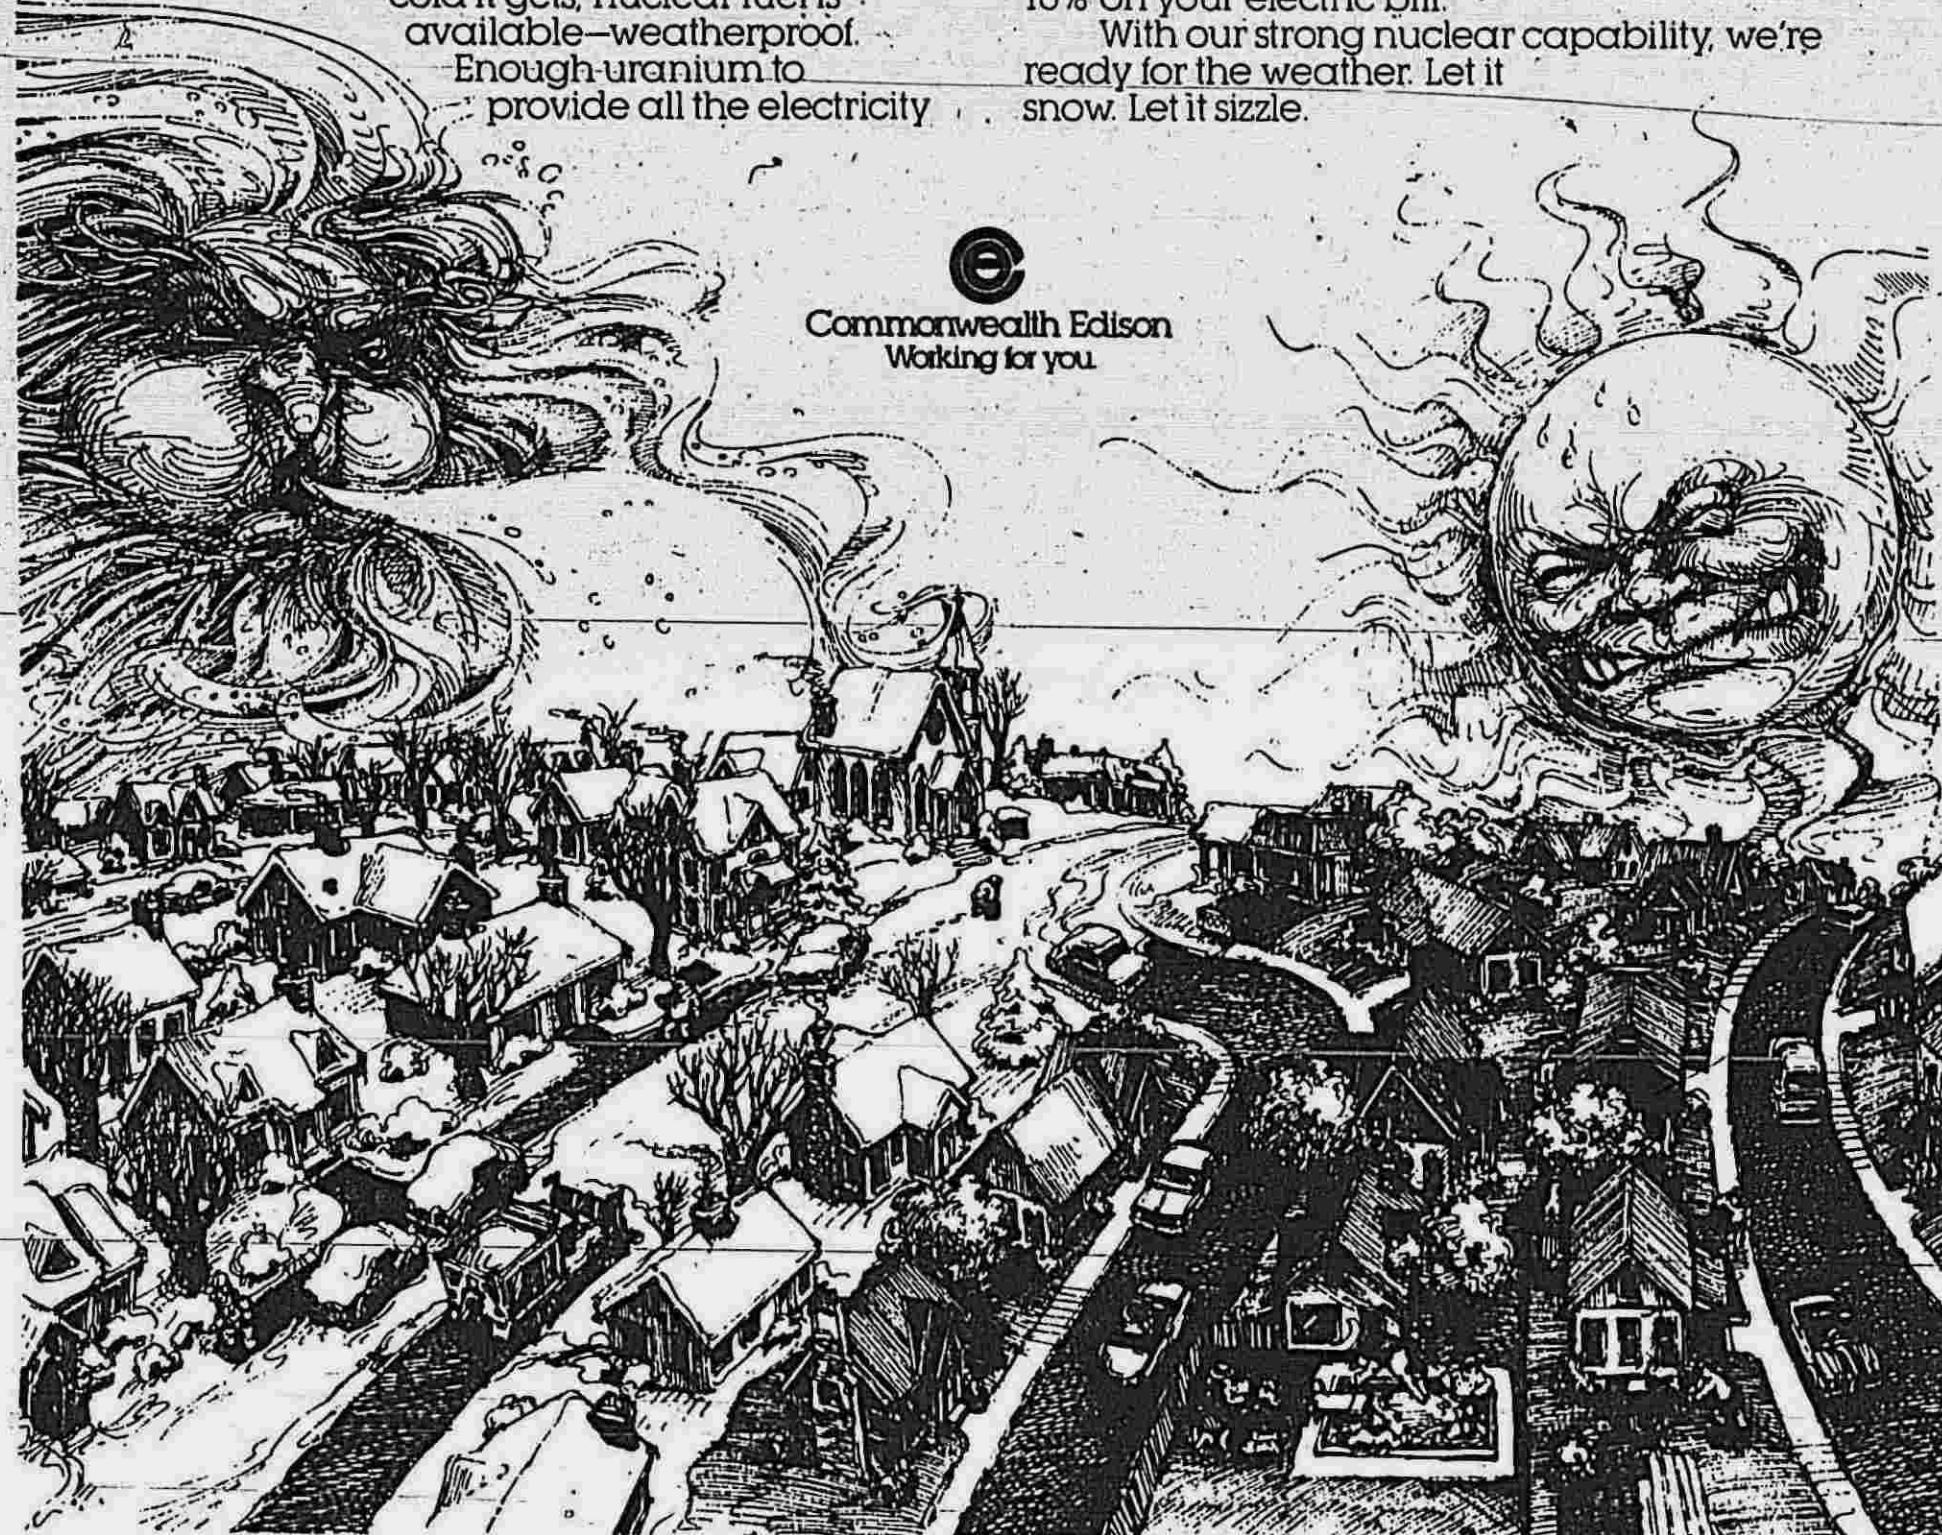

It wasn't luck that got us through those winters; it was nuclear power. Over 40% of the electricity we make comes from nuclear fuel. Because no matter how much it snows or how cold it gets, nuclear fuel is available—weatherproof. Enough uranium to provide all the electricity we need for an Illinois winter can be stored in a one-car garage.

In summer. Nuclear power gives us the reliability we need to respond to summer peak demands without brownouts. In the last decade, when growth of air conditioning helped increase demand for electricity more than 50%, Edison's nuclear stations had an unbroken record of summer availability.

And nuclear power is today's great energy bargain. It costs about a penny a kilowatt hour, less than coal and two to three cents less than oil. If we'd replaced our uranium with low sulphur western coal in 1977, it would have cost an extra $280,000,000 in fuel expense. Oil or gas would have driven the cost up to over one-half billion dollars. Instead, the nuclear fuel we used, the equivalent of 47,000,000 barrels of oil, saved over 10% on your electric bill.

With our strong nuclear capability, we're ready for the weather. Let it snow. Let it sizzle.

 Commonwealth Edison
Working for you.
